GOLDEN NUGGET JETS

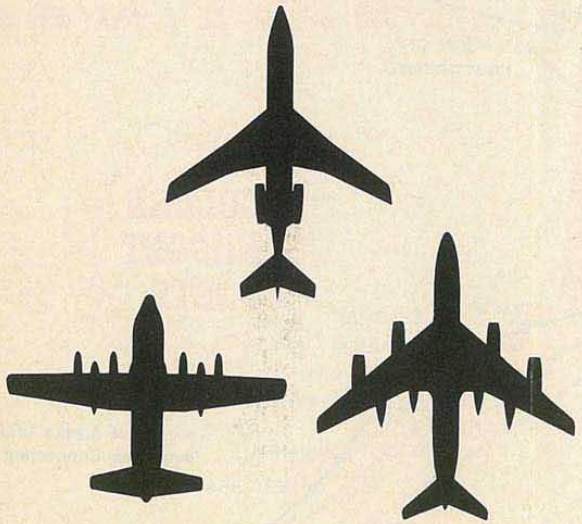
Our whole new look,
is from the book
that gave the nineties glory—
From stem to stern,
from the century's turn
It's like a Gold Rush picture story.

You'll enjoy the dress,
of each stewardess
as they pamper you with care—
their costumes flow,
from head to toe,
with an 1890 flair.

The most Alaskan airline of all . . . and the most fun

ALASKA is as near as your telephone



A modern varied fleet to service all the needs of a growing State.

Alaska Airlines operates:

Boeing 727 fan jets for medium range passenger requirements;

Convair's 990 fan jet long range passenger aircraft;

and all cargo prop-jet Lockheed 342's for outsized cargo or other special lift requirements.

FIRST DAY — Kotzebue-Nome

When you leave Anchorage International Airport this morning, your Alaska Airlines Golden Nugget Jet will carry you North and West to an Arctic Adventure which will prove to be THE outstanding experience of your visit to the 49th State!

Enroute to Kotzebue this morning, you will fly over glaciers, rivers, and streams by the score and see many, many spectacular mountain peaks. Your Golden Nugget flight crew will point out these scenic wonders to you and you will want to have your camera at the ready as you fly by magnificent Mt. McKinley, North America's highest peak at 20,230 feet. Your Golden Nugget flight will make some interesting stops, too.

Shortly before landing in Kotzebue, your Golden Nugget flight crew will announce that you have crossed the Arctic Circle, a scant 23 degrees and 30 minutes in latitude from the North Pole! Here, there is daylight 24 hours a day . . . and you will need all of it to see all there is to see and do in the enchanting land of the Eskimo.

For over an hour and a half, your guide, who meets you at the airport will show you the highlights of this Eskimo village whose main street is part of the shore-line of Kotzebue Sound. You might see the hunters bring a whale or a seal. You will see many racks of fish drying in the Arctic sun. You will be able to photograph dog-teams, sleds, kayaks, and oomiaks. You will be able to intimately view Eskimo life in the Arctic as it is really lived. Wearing the colorful Eskimo parka loaned to you for your Arctic Adventure, you will find it easy to become a part of the delightfully friendly Eskimo life in the Arctic.

Soon you will take a short Golden Nugget flight to Nome, where you will be met and transferred to your hotel. Before dinner, you will have time to shop for souvenirs, with gold, jade, ivory and fur articles in abundance. Since each article is hand made by local craftsmen, you will find no two articles alike.

For dinner you'll want to try some of the Alaskan delicacies on the menu. Have you ever tasted a juicy reindeer steak? Or Arctic Shee fish, Seal liver or Whale muktuk? To match the menu, your dining room is in a spectacular setting next to Nome's seawall, overlooking the Bering Sea.

Now, after a hearty meal, you have a carefully planned evening ahead full of more adventure under the bright midnight sun. You leave Nome traveling Eastward, toward Cape Nome to Old Fort Davis, site of the areas first military garrison, established to maintain law and order during gold rush days.

Another exclusive feature in your Arctic Adventure is a visit with the King Island Eskimos in their village adjacent to Nome. You will be able to photograph them as they perform their ancient dances for you . . . dances handed down from generation to generation, each of which tells its own story of Eskimo life. The Eskimos will demonstrate the ancient art of ivory carving, done with primitive tools. You will witness the exciting and thrilling Eskimo sport of blanket tossing. Only on Alaska Airlines, where you overnight in Nome, can you experience this outstanding feature which most visitors say is the highlight of their entire Alaska vacation.

It is time now to return to town, but before you settle down for a good night's rest in your comfortable, modern, hotel room, you might want to take advantage of the Nome "Night Life Tour" which is available to those who don't want to miss a minute of adventure.

SECOND DAY — Gold Mine Tour — return Anchorage

During the twenty-four hours you spend in Nome, you will feel the fever of the Gold Rush days of her glamorous and gaudy past. You will even meet some of the colorful characters and personalities of that by-gone era. Rex Beach, Tex Rickard and Jack London had their mining claims here. You will perhaps feel the inspiration Robert Service felt when he wrote of the great "North Countree."

As you tour the Nome area, your tour guide will point out the remaining mementos of Nome's Gold Rush days.

One of the exclusive features of your Alaska Airlines Arctic Adventure will be a visit to an authentic Gold Mine, still being operated by a pioneer Alaskan mining family near Nome. You will actually pan for gold in Basin Creek, and we guarantee you will take home some "color."

Upon your return to Nome, you will meet some of your Eskimo friends again and take a ride in an oomiak (large skin boat) on the Bering Sea. You will take a ride in a real Eskimo dog sled, pulled by a team of well-trained Eskimo dogs. This is an experience enjoyed by but very few visitors to the Arctic.

The moment has come to board your aircraft for the return flight to Anchorage. You have experienced the most complete, authentic look at Alaska's Arctic that is available.

As you fly back to Anchorage, you will look at your Arctic Circle Certificate (an official recognition of the fact that you have crossed the Arctic Circle, suitable for framing) and reminisce about the two wonderful days you have just spent in a truly different and exciting corner of America!
