350 Miles

of Gorgeous Scenic Travel!

If you wish the ultimate in a travel route of unsurpassed natural beauty, you take the airway between Montreal and Albany, and New York—swiftly and in comfort. You avoid the slowness, dust and dirt of other travelways—you go by AIR.

A glimpse of Montreal—the rushing St. Lawrence—then over the international border to long-stretched Lake Champlain—surrounded by its magnificent country and its history.

Fly by the famous mountains—to the West—the Adirondacks—to the East—the Green Mountains of Vermont. Then past Lake George—and across the Mohawk valley as it joins the Hudson. Over the fertile farmlands of the river, your plane wings its way to the east of the stern Catskills—over the grey stone buildings of West Point—farther down the Majestic Hudson to the world-famed Palisades, a few minutes away from your destination.

The cities of Montreal, Albany and New York are viewed from the air.

There's less time in travel—more for business and pleasure, when you go the AIRway—and this air journey will prove all too short.
