PASSENGER INFORMATION

CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

Tickets are issued subject to MEA's General Conditions of Carriage for Passengers and Baggage, which may be seen at all offices of MEA and General Sales Agents. The extracts given below are for general guidance, and reference should be made to the appropriate regulation for further details

PASSPORTS

It is the responsibility of the passenger to ensure that his passport is valid and contains the required visas and permits. However MEA Offices and General Sales Agents will be glad to give you every possible assistance.

HEALTH

Certain countries require valid certificates of inoculation or vaccination. Passengers are advised to make early enquiries about the requirements for their journey.

CURRENCY

The movement of money between most countries is subject to Government Control. Passengers should consult their banks about regulations applicable to their journey.

TICKETS - VALIDITY OF TICKETS

Your ticket contains important information concerning the journey and the conditions of contract. Please examine it carefully.

Tickets are valid for one year from the date of issue or of commencement of passage, whichever is later.

FARES

Fares are published for information and may be altered at any time without notice. A reduction of 10% is allowed on return tickets and for circular tours (leading back to the initial point of departure).

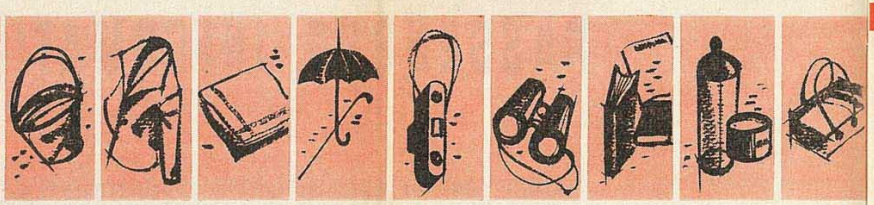
NIGHTSTOPS : Hotel accommodation, meals, and ground transport are normally provided free of chage at nightstop, and on transfer from MEA services to direct connecting services up to a maximum of 48 hours.

STOPOVERS : Except when precluded by government order, you may break your journey at points en route without losing the benefit of the through fare, provided you give notice when you make the reservation. Hotel expenses at such stopovers are your responsibility.

CHILDREN : One child under 2 years of age accompanied by an adult and not occupying a separate seat is carried at 10% of the normal fare. Additional children under 2 years and children aged 2 to 12 years are carried at half the normal fare.

STUDENTS : Special reduced fares are available for students over 12 and under 26 years of age attending full–time courses at an educational institution, when travelling between the place of education and home and subject to various other conditions which may be obtained from any MEA office or Travel Agency.

ARTICLES CARRIED FREE



BAGGAGE : You are entitled to a free baggage allowance of 20 kgms on a tourist class flight and 30 kgms on a first–class or class B flight. Infants paying 10% of the normal fare are not entitled to free baggage. 1% of the nomal first–class one-way fare will be charged for each kilogramme exceeding the free allowance. The following items are carried free : a lady's handbag, an overcoat, a wrap, an umbrella or walking stick, small size cameras, binoculars, reading matter for the flight, baby food for the flight, and a baby basket.

EXCESS VALUE CHARGE : Liability in respect of baggage and other personal property is limited to a maximum of $ 100/- – (£ 36/–/–) or its equivalent per passenger. Baggage declared to be worth more than $ 100/– (£36/–/–) is subject to a charge on the excess value of 15 cents per each U. S. $ 100/–(12d per £ 36/–/–) or fraction thereof. The maximum declaration per passenger is limited to U. S. $ 4200 (£ 1500)

PROHIBITED ARTICLES : Government regulations prohibit the carriage of inflammable or explosive material in aircraft.

ROAD TRANSPORT : Road transport between town terminals and airports is available for a separate charge or free, depending on the regulations existing at each location.

TAXES : Any government taxes are additional to the fare and payable by the passenger.

MEALS AND REFRESHMENTS : Free meals are served on board and on the ground at conventional times. Refreshments are free except for wine, beer, and spirits on tourist class flights. Cigarettes and spirits can be purchased in flight at reduced prices.

RESERVATIONS : The reservations should be made well in advance through MEA Offices or principal Travel Agents.

CANCELLATION : If you have to cancel or defer your journey, you are requested to give notice thereof as early as possible before departure.

REFUNDS : Application for refund of your ticket should be made to your travel office or to MEA offices immediately. No refund is allowed after 30 days from the date of expiry of the ticket.

PUNCTUALITY : Every effort is made to ensure the punctuality of MEA services, but we cannot accept responsibility for the delay or suspension of any service.

REPORTING TIME : Passengers must 'report' sufficiently early to allow departure formalities to be completed. Flights will not be delayed because of the late arrival of a passenger. Consult the 'reporting' time inserted on your ticket.

GENERAL NOTES :

- Save money by purchasing all tickets before departure.
- book your hotel accommodation at destination in advance.
- Carry your Passport, Health Certificates, and Currency with you. Do not pack it.
- MEA Staff are not allowed to accept tips.
- Any MEA Office or Travel Agent will gladly supply further information and offer you every possible assistance at no extra cost.

NO CONSIGNMENT IS TOO BIG OR TOO SMALL

Packing and Labelling :

Heavy packing is neither necessary nor desirable. Cardboard cartons bound with metal tape have proved ideal for many types of goods.

Labels should be addressed legibly and should give full name and address of the consigner and consignee and airport of destination. Whenever possible the telephone number of the consignee should also be given.

Reforwarding :

Goods to any destination in the Middle East will be accepted for carriage by air to the airport nearest the destination.

FOR RESERVATIONS REFER TO NEAREST M.E.A OFFICE OR ANY APPROVED FREIGHT I.A.T.A. AGENT
