One hour's walk in Bergen

Leaving the SAS Office (G6) turn right down Torgalmenning, leading to Bergen's picturesque and unique fish market (F5), where you'll enjoy watching the bickering and brisk trading between the fish dealers and the housewives. Across the harbor, you will see what the fires have left of the famous old wooden warehouses. Now cross the wide Torgest Square and head up Vetrilidsalmenning for the funicular railway, which will take you to the summit of the Floyen mountain (H2). Stop here at the restaurant for refreshment and enjoy the magnificent views of Bergen, the fjord, the mountains, and the ocean. You can walk down if you have the time — and return the way you came to the SAS office.

pleasant SCANDINAVIA

Where Scandinavian charm and natural friendliness set the mood, it's always fun to follow!

You'll enjoy Scandinavia's streamlined hotels and sophisticated cities; its medieval folklore handicrafts, colorful costumes, and gay, traditional dances. You'll want to explore, too, its mountains, rugged and gentle; calm, deep fjords; silent fir forests, and fairytale villages. In summer, the season of sunlit nights, you'll feel the lure of its many beaches reached through enchanting country — ideal for touring by car, boat or train.

A windtightened sail, a leaping fish, a flurry of skishot snow — summer and winter activities unlimited call you to Scandinavia! So, too, does the cultural wealth — from international opera and ballet to exciting concerts and theater, from modern art museums to numerous Viking treasures. And everywhere, blending with the past, there is the perfection of Scandinavian Modern.. silver, glass, furniture, textiles — your choice will widen with every step as you wander the shopping centers.

Why not sample it all for yourself? Fly SAS — and start your Scandinavian vacation the moment you step on board.
