

C.A.A. ZAMBEZI SERVICE

INFORMATION

BAGGAGE

Each full or half-fare passenger is allowed 20 kilogrammes (44 lbs.) of free baggage, in addition to a lady's handbag, an overcoat, wrap or rug, pocket camera, reading matter, infant's food and infant's carrycot. Passengers travelling in company may pool their baggage. Excess baggage is charged at the rate shown in this leaflet. Alternatively heavy baggage exceeding 20 kilos may be sent separately at the unaccompanied rates.

HEALTH and IMMIGRATION

Passengers travelling to or from the Rhodesias and Nyasaland require valid Certificates for Smallpox and Yellow Fever. For travel to East Africa, Smallpox Certificates only are required, but returning passengers must be in possession of Yellow Fever Certificates in addition to Smallpox. All certificates (valid 10 days to 6 years from the date of inoculation in the case of yellow fever and 8 days to 3 years from certified date of reaction for smallpox) must be on the recognised International Form. Passengers should ensure that their passports are valid and endorsed for the British Commonwealth countries and for France, Egypt and Anglo-Egyptian Sudan.

TRANSPORT

Zambezi fares shown are inclusive of road transport to and from airports, except at London, where each air passenger is required to pay the standard charge of 5s. when travelling on the special airport coach between Airways Terminal and London Airport. In addition passengers (infants under 2 years excepted) leaving London must pay a British Government charge of 5s. and should, therefore, have cash available.

TO THE RHODESIAS

VIA NAIROBI AND NYASALAND

Contributing an alternative to, the faster airlines, the novel C.A.A. ZAMBEZI Service permits comfortable cruising in fully reclining seats during a few daylight hours between three attractive night stops, and allows you ample leisure hours to explore the interesting environs of Malta, Wadi Halfa on the Nile and Nairobi in Kenya.

All meals and the best available hotel accommodation en route are included in the ZAMBEZI air fares. Meals in flight are appetising and adequate and a Bar Service is also available.

Aircraft used are the same dependable British "Viking" multi-engined 27-seaters well known in Europe and operated by C.A.A. throughout Africa by highly trained and experienced crews. The Commander, First Officer, Radio Officer, Flight Engineer and smiling Flight Hostess co-operate in ensuring the efficiency and comfort of each flight and constantly strive to maintain the C.A.A. reputation for friendly courtesy and attention both in the air and on the ground.
